Wyoming Among the Commonwealths That Will Not Swell McKinley's Plurality in the College.

Both Democrats and Republicans Claim Oregon and Kentucky—Figures Have Changed in Many Places in the West.

[FOR LATER NEWS SEE FIRST PAGE.]

Later returns from a number of States have somewhat changed the totals, thus leading to the conclusion that McKinley's plurality in the Electoral College will not be as large as was at first expected. Wyoming, that was first counted on by the Republicans, has been conceded to the Democrats, and several other States that were put in the McKinley column are claimed by them to have given Bryan a plurality.

CALIFORNIA.

San Francisco, Nov. 4.—Complete returns from 1,700 out of 2,377 precincts in the State give McKinley 120,022; Bryan, 112,850. The complete vote on the general ticket in 240 precincts, together with the partial vote in 78 other precincts in this city, give the Republican 26,828; Democrats, 25,522; Populists, 1,457; National Democrats, 277; Socialist Labor, 407; Prohibition, 157. Grouping the Populist and Democratic electoral vote, the Bryan electors have a plurality in this city of 181. This vote was compiled at 3 a. m.

COLORADO.

Denver, Nov. 4.—Figures from chairmen of all political parties place the plurality for Bryan at 100,000. Alva Adams, once Governor, was elected Governor on a fusion ticket of Democrats and Republicans for a plurality of 10,000, as conceded by Populist Chairman Armstrong.

CONNECTICUT.

Hartford, Nov. 4.—Revised returns (unofficial) for every town in the State show that McKinley's plurality is 64,142. The twenty-four majorities are all Republican, and the House will stand 220 Republican to 30 Democrats, with two ties—Meriden and Franklin. The Republican majority on joint ballot will be 214.

DELAWARE.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 4.—The United Associated Presses has now sufficient returns to give the following result: McKinley, 4,000 plurality, control the Legislature.

INDIANA.

Indianapolis, Nov. 4.—The returns continue to come in very slowly, and the best figures now obtainable show that McKinley's plurality will be 18,000. M. A. Sulzer has defeated "Watchdog" Holman.

KANSAS.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 4.—Fusion headquarters claim Bryan electors by 10,000. State ticket by 10,000, seven out of eight Congressmen, five out of six judges of the Appellate Court, and a majority of twenty-six in the Legislature on joint ballot. The sensational silver gains appear to have been made in Shawnee, Montgomery and Reno counties. Topeka, hereafter a hotbed of Republicanism, gave a landslide for silver. The greater portion of the railroad vote seems to have gone for silver.

KENTUCKY.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 4.—Republican Chairman Robert says McKinley's plurality in Kentucky will be between 5,000 and 10,000. Twenty-six precincts in Graves County (official) and one county (unofficial) give Bryan a 3,152 plurality, an increase of 1,000 over earlier returns. The Evening Times gives McKinley a plurality of 3,578. The Post says the State is in doubt, and that it is not going to be over 2,000. Brockbridge is defeated in the Sixth District by 1,062.

MARYLAND.

Baltimore, Nov. 4.—The vote in the State shows a plurality for McKinley of 30,672. This is the largest gain since Owen Bowie was elected Governor, in 1857. The Congressional delegation is solidly Republican. Henry Brockbridge (Rep.) was elected an additional Justice of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore.

MAINE.

Lebanon, Me., Nov. 4.—Returns from 229 towns give the following vote: Republican, 60,049; Democratic, 23,550; National Democratic, 888; Prohibition, 621; Populist, 63. Republican plurality, 36,499.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Boston, Nov. 4.—Massachusetts (with the cities of Brockton and Lowell, and the small towns of Dennis, Gosnell and Norton) standing gives McKinley a plurality of 157,919. Wolcott, Republican candidate for Governor, has a plurality of 148,750. Boston complete gives McKinley a plurality of 18,307.

MICHIGAN.

Detroit, Nov. 4.—Returns this morning swell the Republican plurality on Presidential electors to 55,000. Mayor Pingree, Republican candidate for Governor, runs nearly 10,000 ahead of the national ticket. The Democrats have made gains in the Legislature, but it remains Republican by a two-thirds majority.

MINNESOTA.

Minneapolis, Nov. 4.—Returns are slow, but there seems to be no doubt that McKinley has carried the State. Fusion candidates for Governor, is running heavily ahead of his ticket, and it is thought that he is elected.

MISSOURI.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 4.—Five hundred and thirty precincts outside of St. Louis give Bryan 82,000; McKinley, 49,535; Stevens, 55,338; Lewis, 43,800.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 4.—The total vote of this city is as follows: Bryan, 13,243; McKinley, 14,803; Stevens, 12,358; Lewis, 15,987. Jerry Simpson will have 3,100 majority in the Big Seventh (Kansas) Congressional District.

MONTANA.

Butte, Mont., Nov. 4.—Returns continue slow, but early figures are unchanged. Forty-eight precincts in Silver Bow County give Bryan, 7,553; McKinley, 1,461. McKinley's vote is less than one-fourth of that which had been expected.

NEBRASKA.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 4.—Returns indicate a plurality in Nebraska of 15,000 for the fusion Democratic-Populist electors and the election of their State ticket and of their Congressmen in all but the First and Second districts. The Legislature will probably have a small fusion majority.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Concord, N. H., Nov. 4.—Returns from 150 towns and wards give McKinley 32,741; Bryan, 11,740; Palmer, 1,967; McKimley's plurality, 21,001. The same places gave Harris, 29,965; Cleveland, 24,225; Republican gain, 18,258. Returns from 144 towns and wards give Ruggles (Rep.), for Governor, 25,784; Kent (Dem.), 15,221; Ramsdell's plurality, 10,563.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 4.—At Democratic headquarters at noon, Chairman Manly said: Returns from the State come in slowly, but indicate Democratic gains in every county save two, so far as heard from; gains which, if maintained, are safe to give Watson (Dem.) a clear majority for Governor. I think it safe to say he is clearly elected. Bryan's majority, it now seems, will be not less than 20,000.

NORTH DAKOTA.

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 4.—A dispatch sent to Minneapolis is to the effect that both parties are claiming the State. The returns received indicate that the State is doubtful. Eight hundred of the 1,243 precincts in the State give McKinley a plurality of 2,000. Johnson, candidate for Congress on the Republican ticket, runs ahead of the ticket by 500, but the entire State ticket will be elected.

OHIO.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 4.—McKinley's majority in Ohio is crumbling away. Eighty-five of the eighty-eight counties show an average Republican of 600. Democratic counties increase by 25 per cent. If the ratio is maintained, McKinley's majority will be less than 40,000. Republicans claim only 45,000, while Democratic managers estimate it at from 25,000 to 35,000. The Democrats gain four Congressmen.

OREGON.

Portland, Ore., Nov. 4.—Incomplete returns from twenty-six counties in the State, with Elzey to hear from, give McKinley 32,133; Bryan, 27,460. Majority for McKinley, 4,724. McKinley's majority over Bryan in the city of Portland is 4,871. With back counties still to hear from, Populist headquarters claim there are places for Bryan to make gains yet.

Canton, O., Nov. 4.—Chairman Hirsch, of the Oregon State Republican Committee, wires Major McKinley that the State will give him not less than 3,500 majority.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—The latest figures from all counties in Pennsylvania give a plurality of 27,624 for McKinley.

RHODE ISLAND.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 4.—Returns at 8 o'clock this morning show that McKinley had carried the State by a plurality of 1,000. The aggregate vote of the State approaches 180,000, and McKinley's total is about 37,000, to 13,000 for Bryan. The Australian ballot system, with its varied complications, has materially delayed the count, but 19 out of the 23 wards in this city have reported at this hour.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

Yankton, S. D., Nov. 4.—Sufficient returns have been received to show that South Dakota gives her electoral vote to Bryan by 2,500 to 3,000 and elects two silver Congressmen and the entire fusion ticket.

TENNESSEE.

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 4.—The indications are that Josiah Patterson, gold, will be defeated for Congress by Carmack, free silver, by a narrow margin. Fusion have been open in parts of the district, and a contest is certain. McKinley carries the city of Memphis, as also does Tillman (Rep.), for Governor, and the Republican vote in West Tennessee is larger than ever before. Republicans here confidently count on carrying the State.

UTAH.

Salt Lake, Utah, Nov. 4.—Complete returns from 73 precincts in the State show a plurality of 7,153 for Bryan. The same precincts give King (Dem.) a plurality over Holbrook (Rep.) and Foster (Pop.) of 3,490. Returns from 40 precincts show a Democratic majority for the Legislature, but only two Republican precincts have reported. Indications now are that the Democrats will have a handsome majority in the Legislature. The Bryan were has completely carried the State. The Democrats have secured all county and precinct offices in Salt Lake County.

TEXAS.

Houston, Tex., Nov. 4.—Latest figures place Bryan's plurality in Texas over 100,000, and Culberson's, Democratic nominee for Governor, 80,000. All the Democratic Congressmen are elected. They are: First District, Ball; Second, Cooper; Third, Degraded; Fourth, Crawford; Fifth, Bailey; Sixth, Burke; Seventh, Henry; Eighth, Lanham; Ninth, Sayers; Tenth, Shelburne; Eleventh, Kleburg; Twelfth, Starnes; Thirteenth, Stevens.

VIRGINIA.

Richmond, Nov. 4.—Six hundred and fifteen precincts, including cities and 68 counties, give a net Democratic plurality of 13,700, representing about two-fifths of the State. At this rate Bryan's plurality will be 32,500. The Second Congressional District favors Young (Dem.), with York, Charles City and Henry counties missing. The majority over Wise is 825.

WASHINGTON.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 4.—Bryan has carried Washington by 10,000 and upward, and every man on the fusion free silver State ticket has been elected. Sullivan, Republican gubernatorial candidate, concedes his defeat. John Rogers is the successful candidate, winning by about 5,000. Lewis and Jones, free silver Congressional candidates, have been elected by large majorities, Lewis running probably ahead of Bryan electors. While returns come in slowly, they indicate the free silver forces will control the next Legislature on joint ballot, and name a successor to United States Senator Watson C. Squire.

WEST VIRGINIA.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 4.—McKinley's plurality in West Virginia will be not about 10,000. Reports coming from all sections of the State say Republicans have made big gains in some instances over the vote of 1894, when the State went 12,000 Republican for Congressmen.

At Postmaster General Wilson's home, in Charleston, the Republicans gained 115 votes and gained over 200 in the county. All the State ticket, four Congressmen and the Legislature, are carried by the Republicans.

WISCONSIN.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 4.—McKinley's majority in Wisconsin is now figured all the way from 70,000 to 100,000. The entire Republican State ticket is elected by probably 20,000 less. All ten Republican Congressmen are elected. The next delegation in Congress from this State will be, in order of districts, as follows: H. A. Cooper, Edward Sauerhagen, Joseph W. Babcock, Theobald O'Jon, Sam S. Barney, James H. Davidson, Michael Griffing, E. S. Miner, Alexander T. Stewart and John J. Jenkins.

WYOMING.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 4.—Wyoming, fifty-six precincts casting 35 per cent of vote of the State, give McKinley 2,855; Bryan, 3,140; Democratic gain, 422. The county vote is diminishing the percentage of Democratic gains and the fall vote of the State may give McKinley a plurality.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—Chairman Payne, in charge of National Republican Headquarters here, concedes Wyoming to Bryan.

CITY'S ASSEMBLY VOTE.

Recorder Goff Rode His Wheel Ninety Miles to Reach His Polling Place.

Recorder John W. Goff had to search for his vote on Tuesday. The Recorder and his wife, Mrs. Goff, started on Monday from Pittsfield, Mass., nearly 200 miles from New York. On Tuesday morning they found themselves ninety miles away. As every one knows, Mr. Goff values his bicycle more than his bicycle, which is saying a good deal.

"We'll lose our votes, Goff," said Mr. Pollock, looking at his watch after they had wheeled twenty miles on Tuesday. "Lose our votes!" exclaimed the Recorder. "I'd rather lose my judgship. Hit it up, Pollock."

Judge and lawyer rode for all they were worth. They devoured a hasty meal at a roadside inn and set to peddling again. If they were trying to beat the record. When they arrived at Peekskill the Recorder declared his own ability to reach the polling place on the Boulevard, between One Hundred and Fourth and One Hundred and Fifth streets.

"Go on, save your vote, anyhow," said the faster rider, "Mr. Pollock, 'Go on, save your vote, anyhow,' Mr. Pollock did as he was bid. Mr. Goff rode on alone. "Ten minutes more," said the Democratic watcher in the Howard polling place. "Ten minutes more," said the chief inspector, consulting his watch. At that moment the Recorder, dusty and weary, jumped from his wheel before the polling place, and threw it against the wall. He rushed up to the galled, seized the recorder's ballot, sprang into a booth and almost instantly out again and handed his ballot to the poll clerk, who dropped it into the box.

"Six minutes more," said the chief inspector to his companions. Recorder Goff said nothing. But he on their company at the Howard polling place, and was still smiling as he slowly rode to his house, No. 312 West One Hundred and Fourth street.

HURT ON A FERRY BRIDGE.

Pedler Martin Knocked Against a Wagon and His Ribs Crushed. The ferrybridge at the Desbrosses Street Ferry added another patient to the list at Hudson Street Hospital yesterday afternoon. The victim was Patrick Martin, a pedler, sixty years old, of No. 125 York street, Jersey City. Martin was leaving a Pennsylvania Railroad ferryboat at about 3:30 o'clock, when his head got caught between the boat and the bridge, and he was thrown over by the shock, falling against a baggage car that was being drawn off the boat by a horse. Several of his ribs were crushed in. The police say that the bridge is dangerous.

STABBED AND KILLED BY HIS PLAYFELLOW.

Willie McGowan Dies as the Result of a Childish Quarrel. His Man Black Ran 62,000 Votes Behind McKinley in the State.

Threw Sand in the Face of Peter Frees, Who at Once Attacked Him with a Knife.

Both Had Been Playing Football with a Number of Other Young Lads.

THE ASSAILANT STILL AT LARGE.

Told His Mother What He Had Done and She Takes Him Away, Saying She Will Go to the Police.

While a number of little boys were playing football yesterday afternoon in a vacant lot on Amsterdam avenue, just opposite Manhattan Hospital, a quarrel arose. The outcome was that Willie McGowan, nine years old, of No. 1489 Amsterdam avenue, was stabbed just below the heart by Peter Frees, fourteen years old, of No. 1457 Amsterdam avenue, and died fifteen minutes later. Edward McGowan engaged in a quarrel with Peter Frees first. They were in the game together. Willie McGowan, a brother of Edward, was an onlooker. Finally Willie pitched some sand into Peter Frees's face. Frees rushed upon him with a pen-knife, which he opened, and thrust it into Willie McGowan's breast with the exclamation: "I'll teach him to throw sand in my eyes."

Frees then went to his home and told his mother, who is a dressmaker, of the stabbing. The mother left the house with her son, explaining to her neighbors that she was going to take him to the police station. She had not been heard of at a late hour last night at the One Hundred and Twenty-ninth Street Station, where the affair had been reported, and from which place a search has been instituted for the boy, who did the stabbing. The mother may have taken the boy elsewhere. She claimed to be a relative of ex-Congressman Timothy Campbell.
